WILLIAM LOCKIE

HANDCRAFTED IN SCOTLAND
SINCE 1874

'Upholding the pride of Hawick since 1874,
through luxury handcrafted knitwear.'

As one of the oldest family run luxury knitwear businesses based in the Scottish Borders, William Lockie is steeped in history and tradition.

'Lockies', as we are fondly known, dates back to 1874 and are renowned for producing the softest,
finest and most luxurious knitwear in the world.

The secret is in the use of the highest quality of raw materials coupled with the precision of our manufacturing process - producing knitwear like no other.

Located in Hawick on the banks of the river Teviot, Lockies is proud to remain a family run business with skilled workers from the same local families who've been employed for generations.
